FROM Paking our advices are to the effect that the situation was calm on the surface but anything underneath. That is to say that the volcanie elements generally attendant upon the supremacy of the anti-foreign party might break out at any moment. Every one of the Foreign Representatives is more or less anxious concerning the result | Mr Lows :of this Court intrigue, and the health of the Empress-Dowager (Western) was of the greatest consequence to all those interested. It was generally supposed that the able and practical Representative for Germany had taken advantage of the situation, and arranged his little Convention amending one or two matters in the German Treaty. This supposition is strengthened by the fact that Mr Arendt, who has been for the last thirteen years at Peking, has at last obtained a run home on leave and left this in the Ozus a few days ago. This gentleman, who more than any one else filled the great blank left His Excelleboy the Governor's appointment | in the Capital by the death of Mr. Mayers. was the trusted interpreter of Mr Brandt; and we do not doubt but he carries with him the few articles in the small Convention said lately to have been "arranged." What these articles are can be known only after they are made public in Germany; but it is noteworthy that Germany is the nation which among the eleven powers represented at Peking, alone can obtain what she sets her mind upon obtaining from the Chinese. The post of Mr Arendt as interpreter has

On Thursday last, the 1st April, the first steamer of the newly opened Sourabaya-China line, the Graaf van Bylandt, belonging to the N. I. S. N Company, left Batavia for Macassar, Manila, Macao, Hongkong and Amoy, A N. J. Government subsidy was made available for the purpose last year, upon which the N. I. S. N. Company undertook the service on terms advantageous its trips to Australia from five to four. About four hundred men belonging to the The Company has so connected its Australian and its China line that excepting accidents, the boats arriving from Australia can leave for China and continuous navigation from China to Australia, between which the trade is already considerable. The usual time for the voyage from Sourabaya via the ports of call to China and back, estimated at 60 days, a very liberal allowance in our opinion. The importance of direct steam communication with China becomes easily intelligible when people consider that the whole of the Netherlands export to China finds its way thither via England and Singapore India; while also a very large portion the circuitous route via Singanore. Add to this that the steamers plying from Sourabaya to China may convey portions of the traffic between China and Australia, that they will touch also at the Philippines, and that the export trade in our produce may become greatly extended by means of the new steam line, and people will then be able to understand that the departure of the first China boat on Thursday last is an event to which attention may well be paid.

RUSSIA AND CHINA. The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Telegraph writes as follows:-Some months ago, shortly after the Livadia Treaty between Russia and China, I called your attention to the increasing Russian activity in the Pacific. I also pointed out the probability of an underwas drawn up at Livadia being ratified band are a sure guarantee for the success by the Celestial Government, and that of the enterprise, and it deserves the help the differences between China and Japan and protection of the authorities who take appear likely to be settled by arbitration, the Indignation of the Russian Foreign Office is immense. The non-fulfilment of the treaty which Chung How was induced to sign on behalf of his Government is attributed to the influence of the Western Powers at Peking. China is acoused of bad faith, and in their present anger the Russians show clearly enough the immense value which they attached to the China alliance. As I pointed out at the time, the Russian understanding with China was directed finally against England, although Japan was to be the first victim; and the desire to establish powerful naval stations in the Pacific was prompted by the hope of being able to disturb England's supremacy and the tranquillity of her commerce in Eastern ocean. Now, the Russian di-Hongkong with 834,713 kil., sugar and 6,700 plomatists are forced to acknowledge that kil, sapanwood. The steamer Churrues is the scheme has for the present failed, and we shall probably see the gradual withdrawal of the Russian fleet which was assembled last autumn in the Pacific. The Russian complaints are most naive. and other Powers are warned that if China is allowed to break faith over the Livadia Treaty, there is no security that she will not do the same with regard to the various treaties she has contracted with the Western Powers. So far, however, no other Power has thought fit, during a time of peace, and whilst profersing friendship with the Chinese Government, to seize an important piece of Chinese territory, and, after the lapse of several years, under a similar guise of friendship, to offer to restore half the stolen property on condition of receiving an enormous ransom from its rightful y many missionaries with their spiritual owners. THE CHINA REVIEW.

ITHE widely-expressed regret at the dis-continuance of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publishers of this journal to issue a publication similar in object and style, but slightly modified in certain details.

THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and sons passing through the City, and Queries on the Far Kart, is issued at in- in connection with we have opened tervals of two months, each number containing about 60 octavo pages, occasionally illustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuts, &c., should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such extra matter. The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum, payable by non-residents in Hongkong half-yearly in advance. The publication includes papers original and selected upon the Arts and Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Manners and Cus-toms, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, the Eastern Archipelego and the "Far East" generally. A more detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially invited is incorporated with each number.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Por- Government Offices, the Secretariat, &c., tuguese, are admissible. It is desirable to make the Queries proper as brief and as much to the point as possible.

The China Review for July and August, 1875, is at hand. It says that forty-two essays were sent in to compete for the best paper on the advantages of Christianity for the development of a State. All our learned societies should sub pribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review. It is a sixty paged, bi-monthly, repertory of what scholars are ascertaining about China. The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to Photographic Studio, 8, Queen's neighbouring countries, somewhat similar Ger to that which has been filled in India by the Calculta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, number of the Keview by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. This paper is now issued every day. The subscription is fixed at Four Dollars per snnum delivered in Hongkong, or Seven Dollars Bifty Cents in cluding postage to Coast ports.

It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction, The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the native community, amongst whom also are to be found the guarantors and securities necessary to place it on a business andlegal footing.

The projectors, basing their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan,from Australia, California, Singaporo, Penang, Salgon, and other places frequented by the Ohlnese, — consider themselves justified in guaranteeing an ultimate chculation of between 3,000 and 4,000 copies. The savantages offered to adverthere are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of
